Message from Mr Hawkins

Dear families,

Happy New Year! We hope that our families & school community had a wonderful Christmas break. Christmas is such a special time of the year to celebrate the birth of Jesus, and a new year is an important time to reflect on our successes from the previous year and to set ourselves goals.

The term has started somewhat busily due to the snow on Monday. We were devastated to see the flooding at the Hill Avenue/Belton Lane junction. Our school worship leaders have delivered a letter to those affected and shared some prayers with the residents on behalf of the whole school.

Included in this newsletter are the diary dates for this term. You can also find next year's term dates on page 2 of this newsletter.

With the very best of wishes,
Mr Hawkins & the Little Gonerby team
